

The Great Nativity Character Hunt:

Who are they and where are they hiding?

Your mission is to locate all of the characters of the Christmas story that you might typically find in a nativity scene. They are located in specific outdoor locations around the campuses of First Presbyterian Church and Market Street Church.

There are a total of six boxes each with a character or set of characters of the nativity. The boxes are each locked with a 4-digit combination padlock. You will receive the combination for each as you proceed through the hunt.

The hunt should take about 25 minutes. It can be done all at once or you can find a few characters and come back another day to finish. Keep your handouts to make something at the end with the images.

Make sure to always lock each box and put it back exactly where you found it. We fear that boxes could disappear, but we will be checking on them often to make sure the hunt is ready for your family. If you have any trouble (like a box seems to be missing or a padlock is not opening), email todd@fpcwinc.org or text Todd Bowman.

Now that you know how it all works, you are ready to start the hunt. Flip to the other side to find your first clue.

FINDING THE FIRST CHARACTER

Clue: The angel brought her news of great joy,
She would be the mother of God's special boy
Who do you think you'll find first?

"But these miracles have been written so that you will believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and so that you will have life by believing in Him".
~John 20:31

To open the first box, use the 4 digits of this note's Bible reference. To find the first box (and character), use the map below and go to where the star is.

Remember to lock the box and put it back where you found it.
